Housing authority has drug sniffer by Marvin McILwain Editor

The Elba Housing Authority along with Authorities from Enterprise, Troy, Ozark, and Dothan have formed a coalition and have pur-chased the latest drug detection equipment.
This detection system is known as an IONSCAN.

The Ionscan is capable of detecting and identifying up to 18 different substances simultaneously with the results provided to the equipment operator within six (6) seconds. The equipment can provide a computer printout of its findings that can be presented in a court of law if The machine can also be pro-

ELBA TIGERS LOOKING FORWARD TO NEW YEAR

The Elba Tigers got some time off after a busy pre-holiday schedule, and by the time the Tigers hit the court again this week against New Brockton, had not played a game for two weeks. The players and coaches probably needed the time off after playing a mighty tough schedule and struggling to a 2-5 record, but the team also probably needed the extra hours of practice and I'm sure Coach Lane made sure they got in plenty of Elba's 2-5 record isn't anything to write home about, but at the same time the record is very deceiving. The Tigers dropped their opener to 5A Opp, a loss they later avenged, while other setbacks were to 6A Enterprise (twice), 6A Selma and 5A Charles Henderson. The other win was over 3A Rehobeth, which is a solid 3A club averaging over 85 points a game. It always hurts to lose, no matter who you lose to. However, the losses to such 6A powers as Enterprise and Selma can't help but make the Tigers mentally tough as they get into the meat of their schedule. The Elba players have already played against some of the best competition in the state and held their own, which should make them confident when the going gets tough on down the line. Elba's team was young and inexperienced back when the season started, but the players are now young veterans and should be ready to start putting some wins on the board!

BRANTLEY DOMINATES AREA BASKETBALL ACTION

The Brantley Bulldogs claimed their third tournament championship of the young season last week when they easily cruised through the South-East Alabama Conference Tournament, in New Brockton. The Bulldogs, which have won all seven games they have played in tournaments.

The Eagles jumped out to an early 11-3 lead over the Tigers in the opening stanza, but saw Straughn rally and cut the lead to 22-17 by the end of the half. Goshen regained command in the third quarter and stretched its lead to 35-24, then simply ran away with the win in the form away with th which have won all seven games they have played in tournaments, jumped all over New Brockton and then put it in cruise in a 12-point win, then took no prisoners in a blowout over outmanned Kinston. Here are a few thoughts about the bowl season... I don't usually predict college football games, but one day last week
I sat down and wrote down my picks for 17 bowl games. I hit on 15 of the 17 picks, missing only the Fiesta Bowl and Citrus Bowl, and the reason was that the rules about having to win six games against Division 1 opponents have made many of the bowls almost certain blowouts. The SEC had teams like Georgia, LSU and Ole Miss sitting at home, while such powers as Wyoming, Utah, Brigham Young, Indiana, Michigan State, lowa and Virginia all went bowling because of either weak conferences or just plain weak schedules. Maybe teams with losing records don't deserve a bowl trip, but neither do teams that play weak schedules, or schedules against teams that are Division 1 in name only. *When Alabama ripped apart Miami in last year's Sugar Bowl it marked the end of the mystique that had surrounded the Hurricanes during their amazing streak of success. This year the 'Canes did win more than share of games, but Saturday Arizona totally embarrassed Miami in a game in which the 29-point spread wasn't even as close as the lopsided score might indicate. Arizona got conservative many times after getting down close and had a turnover that killed another scoring drive. If the Wildcats had been better offensively, it might have won fifty or sixty to nothing. The Cane has been cut in college football.

Alabama resembled a pretty good football team in the second half in its win over North Carolina and gave Tide fans something to look forward to by playing nine true-freshmen in the game. The Tide's offense was good enough to put enough points on the scoreboard to win the game, but was as boring as ever, while the defense took command at the line of scrimmage and took away the run, which was the Tarheels' strength. It was a win the Crimson Tide, and its fans, needed badly and one that should carry'em over until next season.
